Others Present:

Residents: Mike Dee, Natalie-Pascale Boisseau

Staff Present:

Cory Roche - Community Volunteer Coordinator

Welcome and Introductions

Review/Approve October Meeting Minutes:

Ben motioned to approve the October meeting minutes with edits, Derek seconded the motion, and the meeting minutes were approved unanimously.

Scavenger Hunt Update:

Talked over new strategy with rhymes and riddles. The Board will look to announce the scavenger hunt around April 2020 and bring back ideas next meeting.

Animal Acres Picnic Shelter Update:

The Board discussed potential roof color and design of the Picnic Shelter. Olivia stated the bronze seems to match with the rockery a bit better. Paula motioned to recommend Bronze as the chosen color, Derek seconded the recommendation, all agreed.

Waterfront Access Discussion:

Update on Burke Gillman Trail, King County improvement. King County is almost done with opening a larger viewing area of Lake Washington off of the Burke Gillman Trail with additional seating.

Other Business:

Five Acre Woods update: The City will be looking to go out for bid to complete a design for the park, Five Acre Woods, in the beginning of 2020.

Cory updated the group on the Bird Recording project through UW Bothell, stating that it did not seem it would work out because of each other's public records responsibilities. The project will still use the parks for viewing purposes only for research.

Public Comments:

Mike Dee thanked the Board for getting together before the end of the year. Mentioned to please take a look at not double booking at meetings.

Adjourn: 7:35 PM
