Subject: Notification of Complete Application 2018-RUE-0001

Hi Steve,

Thanks for coming in to the Permit Counter to check in the other day. Please consider this email your official notification that your application for a Reasonable Economic Use Exception, 2018-RUE-0001, has been reviewed by the City and has been deemed complete. Your application was submitted May 14th, and the City has 28 days to let you know that it is complete. Today is exactly 28 days from your submittal date. According to code, we now have until June 26th to publish the Notice of Application. This Notice of Application will follow the normal publication process. The Notice of Application will have a two week comment period. Then, we will take some time to develop the exhibits and the staff report. Once we have everything ready, we will schedule a hearing and there will also be a Notice of Hearing publicized. As of right now, we are expecting the hearing to be sometime in August.

Please feel free to let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Lauren
